

The documents of the Second Vatican Council contain numerous references to the cosmic and heavenly dimensions of sacred worship, speaking of the earthly congregation as “united with the worshipping

Church in heaven” (LG, 50), with the saints and angels as the “warriors in the heavenly army” (SC, 8). It asks for liturgical art to reveal the “signs and symbols of heavenly realities” (SC, 122) and speaks of liturgy as revealing the “invisible divine things” (SC, 33). Yet, much post-conciliar worship has tended to ignore or diminish the role of heavenly realities in earthly liturgy. The Liturgical Institute presents a conference which explores the cosmic and heavenly dimensions of the sacred liturgy from the perspective of the Second Vatican Council. Suitable for priests and deacons, religious, liturgy directors and coordinators, musicians, diocesan worship office personnel, liturgy and language scholars, and all who love the liturgy.

“In the earthly liturgy, by way of foretaste, we share in that heavenly liturgy which is celebrated in the holy city of Jerusalem toward which we journey as pilgrims, and in which Christ is sitting at the right hand of God...we sing a hymn to the Lord’s glory with all the warriors of the heavenly army...”

— Sacrosanctum Concilium, 8.
